Norris Public Power District Urges Customers to Be Cautious about Identifying Imposter Utility Workers

Norris Public Power District cautions customers to be aware of individuals posing as utility employees. A recent incident that occurred in Lancaster County has been reported to Norris Public Power District and law enforcement officials.

Customers can protect themselves by:

- Asking to see identification. Norris Public Power District employees are required to carry identification and wear clothing identifying them as part of the company;
- Calling 1-800-858-4707 to verify service work and employee identities if there is any doubt;
- Looking for clearly marked service vehicles; and
- Reporting any suspicious activity to law enforcement officials and Norris Public Power District.
